- Read stories
- Learn about saving, spending and sharing
- Work together on a fun, take-home activity that will help encourage your child to think about money in a new way

Space is limited. Registration is required.

Please register by visiting the Library website at www.miltonlibrary.org
Click the link on the right side of the home page called "Library Events Calendar".
Scroll down to April 22nd and click the "Register" box in the Piggy Banking section.

A friendly reminder: if you register for this event and are unable to attend, please let us know so you don't take a spot away from another child!
